

CURRICULUM VITAE: Zafar Ahmad Khan

12, B-2 Street, Phase 5, DHA, Karachi.

zaffarak@yahoo.com

Mr. Zaffar A. Khan graduated as a Mechanical Engineer and soon thereafter joined Esso which later was renamed Exxon & following an employee led buyout became known as Engro. He served the Company for 35 years the last 6 years was as the CEO. Upon retirement he served as Chairman of PTCL, Karachi Stock Exchange & PIA. Currently, he is an Adjunct Professor at IBA where he teaches Human-Resource Management. He also frequently teaches at the Pakistan Institute of Corporate Governance.

Mr. Zaffar Khan worked for a decade in Hong Kong, USA & Singapore with Exxon in the field of petro chemicals. He completed an Advanced Management Program from the University of Flawaii and has undertaken short courses from the Harvard Business School & INSEAD.

Mr. Khan has served on a number of diverse Boards in the Private Sector, Public Sector & Civil Society Organization. Current Board appointments include Shell Pakistan, Unilever Pakistan, International Industries, Askari Bank, Acumen Fund Pakistan & Pakistan Centre for Philanthropy. His past Board experience in the financial sector includes United' Bank & more recently the Board of State Bank of Pakistan.

Mr. Khan has served as the President of Overseas Chamber of Commerce & Industries & several committees of GOP namely the Economic Advisory Committee, Pay & Pension Committee and the committee that recommended the National Environment Quality Standard.

Mr. Khan is a recipient of Sitara-e-Imtiaz.